

About Cyanide

The most awaited and energetic annual cultural fest of our institute started in the year 1998 by erudite chemical engineers. It is the best time to meet diverse people from all around, to make new memories or to relive the golden days. It gives ample opportunities to showcase yourself by taking part in various events for all interests ranging from fashion to dance, games to quizzes, workshops to star night and much more to explore which becomes a reason for its universality. When brilliant minds work together they make the lights of the fest shine longer and brighter. The taste of cyanide is unknown until it is tried, so have the courage to solve this mystery by having a bite right here at the annual fest of Dr SSB UICET, Panjab University "Cyanide".

Mega Events

Star Night

Star night is the most awaited night of the fest as this night is filled with glamour, joy, dance and music with the famous celebrities from Punjab and Haryana.

Fashion Nights

Fashion Night is an event filled with glitz and glamour where students from different colleges showcase their fashion sense, creativity, and design skills. The event is often a major highlight of Cyanide and attracts a large audience

Bhangra Wars

With the magic of the dhol and Punjabi beats we present to you the "Bhangra wars". A battle platform to showcase the love and enthusiasm for the Punjabi folk dance to win the title of the Bhangra Champion.

Cynathon

Among the various activities that make S Cyanide memorable, the marathon event stands out as an epitome of endurance, determination, and community engagement.

EDM Night

The crowds rock out as the beats drop hard which sends them into a frenzy as the most popular event of Cyanide, which is "DJ Night", provides a platform for students to let loose, dance and have a good time

Nukkad Natak

Nukkad Natak has always been the most efficient and powerful way to express highly complex problems of society in a way which is sometimes funny, sometimes heart wrenching and well, everytime mesmerising

Flash Mob

Flash Mob is organised by various cultural clubs of our department which include western dance, bhangra, skit, nati, singing and music performances at the most happening place of the university which is STUC.
